Our Mission
We enhance quality of life by providing excellence in books and services for our residents and communities.

Mid-Columbia Libraries Boilerplate
Mid-Columbia Libraries enhances quality of life by providing excellence in books and services for our residents and communities. Since 1949, we have grown to 12 library branches, a Bookmobile, and a digital branch.

Today, we offer cardholders systemwide, 24/7 access to more than 400,000 books, audiobooks, magazines, and videos, including more than 100,000 downloadable eBooks, eAudiobooks, eMagazines, and streaming video. Visit midcolumbialibraries.org for more information.

Executive Director Kyle Cox

Community Relations
Mid-Columbia Libraries engages our readers with year-round, offsite activities and programs including:

- Attendance at offsite community events, programs, and expos;
- Bookmobile services to rural areas;
- Friends of Mid-Columbia Libraries;
- Lectures;
- School visits during open houses and literacy nights; and
- The Tri-Cities Latino Community Network, in partnership with Tri-Cities Hispanic Chamber of Commerce.

Mid-Columbia Libraries works with Friends of Mid-Columbia Libraries and many other community partners to promote reading. Interested in partnering with the library or having us attend a community event? Contact us!
