About the Author

A Mid-Columbia Libraries customer favorite, Debbie Macomber is one of today's most popular writers with more than 200 million copies of her books in print worldwide. From sweet to a little steamy, her books cover it all.

Macomber's novels have spent more than 1,000 weeks on the New York Times bestseller list. Thirteen of these novels hit the number one spot. In 2019, new publications include "Window on the Bay," and "A Mrs. Miracle Christmas" as well as a non-fiction release titled "Be a Blessing: A Journal for Cultivating Kindness, Joy, and Inspiration."

Celebrated as "the official storyteller of Christmas," Macomber's annual Christmas books are beloved, and five have been made into original Hallmark Channel movies. Macomber is also the author of the bestselling "Cedar Cove" series, which the Hallmark Channel chose as the basis for its first dramatic scripted television series.

Born in Yakima, Macomber now lives in Port Orchard, Washington. Check out some of her titles at midcolumbialibraries.org/debbiemacomber. Learn more about the author at debbiemacomber.com.
